Happy, gay, sunshiny days - - Dull gray, gloomy days - - but nevertheless all of them school days. The five minute bell, the rush for home rooms, the hurried departure for school - - The grumblings and rejoicings which tumble from the lips of students as they leave. Many sigh with relief as they think of leaving the confinement of school, and probably these same ones will gaze back longingly at the chattering group gathered around the always open door. Although it seems at times to be drudgery, we shall all miss the time when we were in the hubbub and the days of our busy school activity.

The old building stands meditatively contemplating the past and the host of many students who have left its portals. The years have added the ivy to the walls. Its freshness but scantily covers the mellowness which spreads over the venerable old pile. Perhaps some feel that a new building is needed at this east end of the corridor. The time will come when this weatherbeaten structure will have to go. The memories which would be torn down with these old walls are such that they never could be replaced in our reveries by the new walls which might be built. So we love our old building as a treasured and mellowed relic of a romantic past.

DEDICATION

To you, the citizens of Findlay, for your unswerving loyalty to us in giving us our requisite number of school days, we dedicate this annual. We students appreciate this probably more than many people think, for to us this lengthened school year is not merely a method by which we may put in our time and slide through as easily as possible but it is something which all of us are deeply indebted for. Perhaps the seniors are especially grateful to you since it would have been impossible for them to have graduated if the school year had not been extended. No one better deserves the credit of keeping our schools open than do you, the citizens and that loyalty to school children which you have shown us will not be underestimated by them.

By our lengthened school term we have been able to do things which former classes have been able to do. Not only in scholarship but also in many activities we have been able to hold our own. We realize that these activities are an important part of our school life. Activities have their place in school but they have not been emphasized as being the most important feature of school life by the Findlay Senior High School, for the teachers, the students, and you, the citizens, realize that the primary object of schooling is to get an education. This Findlay High School emphasizes above everything else and this is the reason we students are so proud of our school which, now, is on a high plane and the credit of its high position is due to those citizens of Findlay who could not sit idly by and see the decline of the school which has always been considered one of Findlay's most powerful assets.

Citizens of Findlay, we the students of Findlay High School offer humbly to you our deepest appreciation of this act which you have so kindly done for us.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

MR. MATTESON

We, the student body, recognize and deeply appreciate the untiring and unselfish work of our superintendent, Mr. Matteson. We recognize his splendid management during his years of administration; and especially during these last few trying years, when that management must necessarily have been extremely difficult and anxious, have we found in his guidance strong support, cool confidence, and unshakeable faith.

We feel that he has promoted in the schools the desirable new ideas in education, that he has given to the schools a firmer foundation for their recognized standing, and that he has aroused public pride in the schools' excellences.

We extend to him our sincere gratitude and our best wishes for the future.

MR. KINLEY

The students of Findlay High School should consider themselves, indeed, fortunate in having as their principal and leader such a man as Mr. Kinley. Most of the students consider it a great privilege to become intimately acquainted with their teachers. A person whose acquaintance is most cherished if cultivated and most longed for if not yet cultivated is that of Mr. Kinley. Besides his unswerving personality we are quite fortunate in having a man with such unlimited ability and energy. To enumerate the things which he has done for our school would be absurd since that list would comprise too much space but we can still go on expressing our genuine joy in having our principal. Mr. Kinley, as our leader.

HELEN McKELVEY

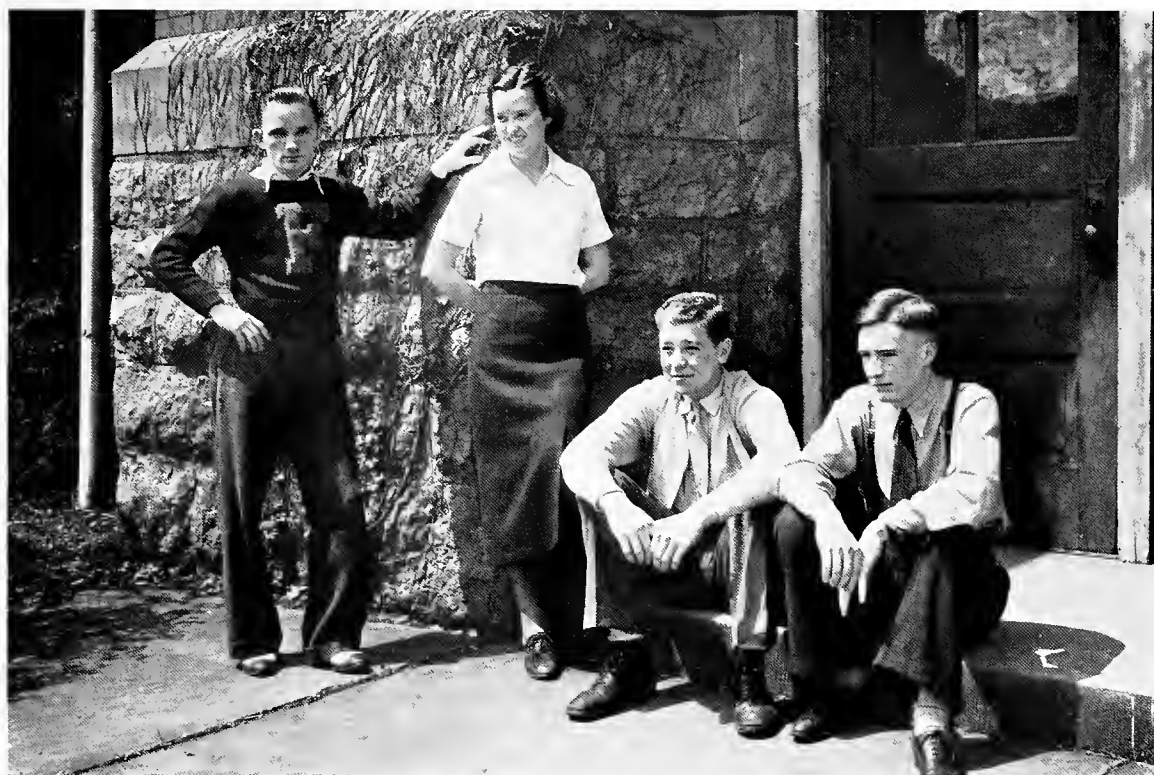

Do we miss her? - - I should say we do, and we miss her more when we think of that vacancy in our graduation class. So fun-loving and yet at the same time so industrious that there never was a minute wasted to lower the standards of our Senior class. Always prominent in studies, music, journalism, and other activities. We all remember the music trio that brightened many an important occasion.

We are also very sure we would have another member on our honor roll if she had been here. How well Helen managed the editing of the "Blue and Gold" shows her unflinching ambition to carry heavy responsibilities, but she liked it and was always thinking of other people's pleasures. Everyone of us believes that soon we shall see her cheerful face back into regular routine again - - because we certainly do miss her.

Good luck - - Helen!

1935 CLASS HISTORY

Finished, three years. Three years filled with work, pleasures, idiosyncrasies, and friends. The Class of 1935 look forward to the next years of their lives, either in college or in business, with great hopes and ambitions. But before we enter onto the Highroad perhaps it would be best to summarize our history as a class.

Our class can feel justly proud of its scholarship. Seldom, in the history of the former classes of our beloved F. H. S., has a better class average been attained. We held our rank in the Bowling Green District Scholarship Tests. We have worked hard to uphold the standards of the school, but we have worked harder to assimilate knowledge which we hope will keep us in good stead in the tests of our futures.

In athletics our class has been good in many sports. We have a right to be proud of our football team, our basketball, track, and golf teams. The season in each undertaking has been fairly successful.

Never before in the history of our school have the extra-curricular activities been of such high merit. Under the leadership of Mr. Kinley, the faculty has provided a club program which we as a class have greatly appreciated. It has been broad in choice of subject matter, so much so, that practically every student of our class has been a member of a club in which he has had a particular interest. Besides club work, we have heartily entered into dramatics. Our two successes, "The Queen's Husband" in our Junior year, and "Double Door" in our Senior year, will be remembered as singularly well directed and acted. The "Two Vagabonds," the opera of the 1935 season was capably sung and acted by the principals and chorus most of whom were of our class. And as for our Junior-Senior Prom of last year, the commendations for its brilliant consummation can be had from all who attended it.

For all of these slight successes we humbly acknowledge all the faculty who have by their careful and wise guidance kept us steered toward our goal, as well-rounded high school life, in which education was not forgotten.

As we leave old F. H. S. we do so with a mingled feeling of regret and expectation. We hope and sincerely feel that our class of 1935 will fully justify the hopes of the faculty as we travel on the Highroad of Life.

The Junior boys have well lived up to the high standards of previous Junior classes. They have excelled in scholarship and athletics. It is not too much to state that without the Juniors the athletic teams would have been greatly handicapped. Their cooperation in such activities as the Junior Play, the Operetta, Debate, the Newspaper, and the Annual made these events, not only possible, but also highly successful. While some of the boys were not as outstanding as others, all were willing to cooperate in making the class what it is. They are well qualified to take the place of Seniors next year.

The Junior girls of '35 look back with satisfaction on the completion of their Junior year.

The Junior girls' class contained many outstanding members too numerous to name individually. However, mention must be made of a great number who represented Findlay Senior High in the school scholarship tests, dramatics, sports, and in the Junior-Senior reception. We are justly proud of the record they made and appreciate what they have done for the school.

To the sponsors, Miss Dietsch and Mr. Lawrence, who so ably directed the progress of the girls in Findlay Senior High School, we faithfully extend our lasting loyalty.

Even teachers must make that five minute bell - - gone but not forgotten - - Can that be Vivian? I can't believe - - sob - sob - She was so sweet - - so kind to everyone - - Why waste that smile on a paper, Victor? I know several girls who would appreciate it. That includes me! - - New pupils? My mistake. It's Miss Sidwell and Miss Switzer - - In the spring a young man's fancy - - oh, pardon me, that's the wrong line - - These boys say baseball but girls - - well - - romance, full moon and all that sort of thing - - a dual personality - - Victor says "Home! The world's all upside down." - - And then, love - - I guess it's true - - its course doesn't run too smoothly - - Now there are girls and then other girls, but these are the kind we raise at Findlay Hi. Beautiful and - - bright!

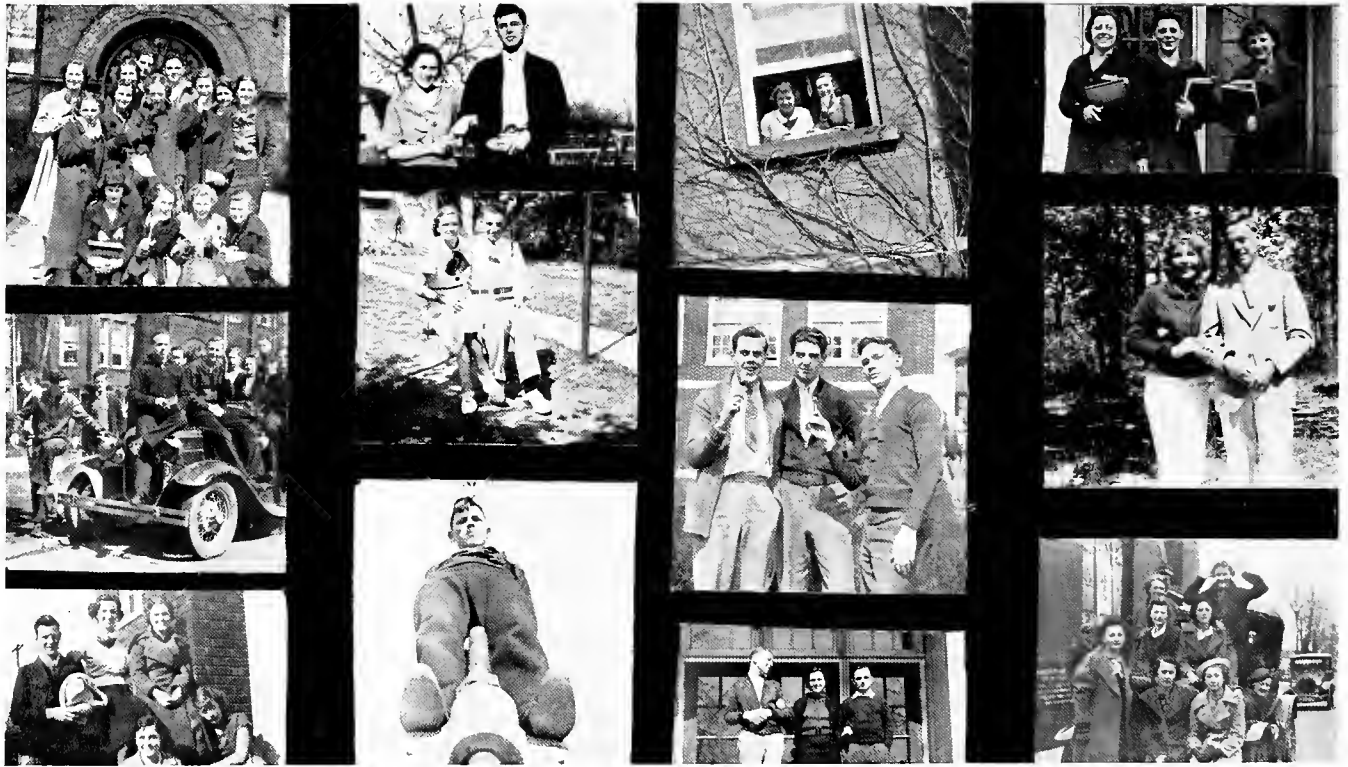

S n a p s

Lunch hour! It's too bad I can't recognize tops of heads. Who knows - - someone might get her name in here if I could - - At it again, Bradford! How you manage to monopolize all the girls is more than I can see! Worry! Worry! Worry! Result of loafing! Loafing! Loafing! - - Johnny leads the gang - - communists or something - - Who would ever think Freddy looked like that as a baby? Study steadily for five minutes and you'll see the resemblance. - - Oh, for the life of a gypsy or a bicycle rider - - just sophs! You might know it! - - No, we can't tell who it is. Baby pictures are never very good the original says. He can't be a baby, tho! Babies just don't smoke. Sorry, I can't tell who it is but he holds forth in the Physics lab. And his initials are G. R. C. - - The long and short of it! - - Just two good-looking boys - - ahem - - men! They're seniors!

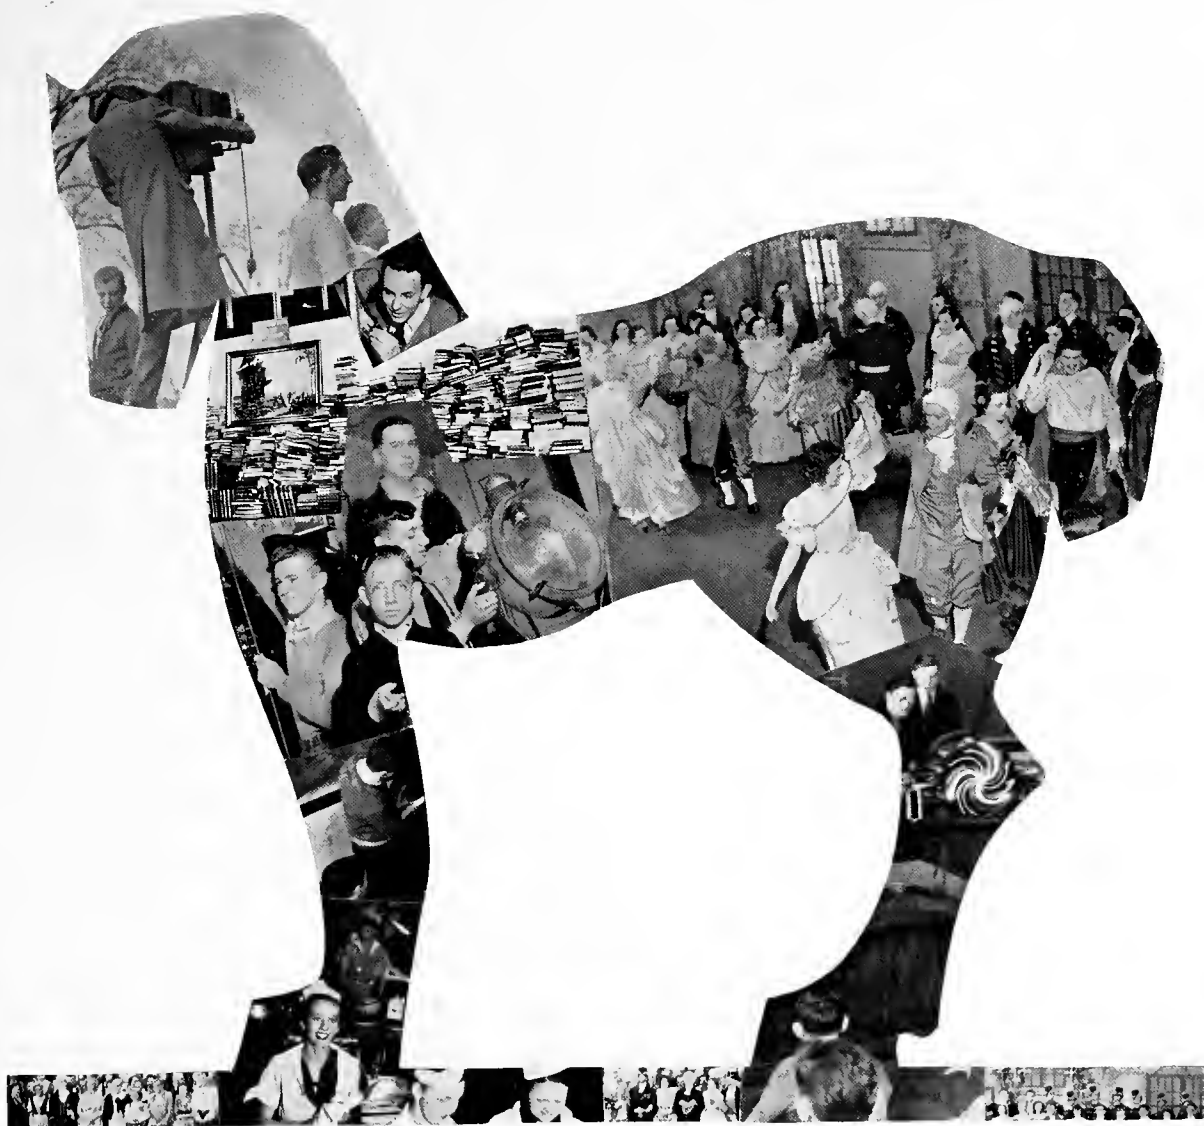

S n a p s

Some Sigma Delta with an A. Z. and a few fellows thrown in - - Peg and Chuck - - in love for over a year - - quite a record - - Hello there, it's Margaret and Virginia speaking to you. The trio, Virginia, Lucille, and Virginia. Would you believe it, there is a car under all those fellows - - Courtney and Walters seem to be the most decorating feature. - - Ah 'tis spring and Ruth and Bob just go swinging along - - The three musketeers - - with lollypops. That smile of Jane's would make anyone happy - - and Dick's isn't so bad either. - - Can this be a rose among the thorn's or is it Hecky among the women - - He seems to like it though - - Starting from the bottom and working up we find Orval Dickes. The Senior Officers, Treas., Pres., and Sec. Elsea and Mischke seem to enjoy it but Dike isn't so happy. Maybe Mischke smiled too sweetly at the Cameraman. Why hide the car, girls, doesn't it run? Why Francis Jane - - you don't mean that.

Honor Class

With averages of ninety or above after four years of the most concentrated study, these seventeen students have been honored with well-earned admittance to the Honor Class.

This class, symbolic of the finest scholars in the school, calls for an average of ninety or above, before one may enter its doors to glory. It stands for the most concentrated study, the extreme limit in scholarship, the deepest and keenest meditation, and undying determination. Only through these methods, can a well-deserving student reach his goal. This goal is one well-worth striving for, since it compensates hard work a thousand times. Not all can attain it, and it should be treasured by the few who do.

These seventeen educated students, having attained great knowledge of their subjects, will now reap the harvests of a good education. Therefore, these leaders will carry on the fight for success, and we know they will reach the top.

Student Council

Our student council is an organization of representative students elected to assist through cooperative effort in working out helpful social relationships in school activities and in civic problems.

The purpose of the student council is to promote better relations between the student body and the faculty and to aid in the decisions of minor policies. The council endeavors to stimulate scholastic betterment individually as well as collectively. It has a tendency to create a better social and moral standard of our student body. This group applies the principle of "learning by doing." By having an organization of this kind, a means is established whereby students may participate in the management of the school community, and a spirit of good will and loyalty is aroused about the schools and with the faculty. It offers a chance for the student body to present their opinions formally and sensibly.

Besides the above important functions the student council sponsors the lecture course and has charge of the concessions, book campaigns, college days, and amateur night.

ANNUAL STAFF

Working under the most difficult conditions this year the Annual Staff deserves extra recognition for its efforts. Because of the uncertain term of school this year's book was really begun in March at the time when past books were finished. However the staff put forth extra efforts and much hard work to make the 1935 Annual a success. There is no school publication which means so much to the graduating class. Therefore the Class of 1935 extends its appreciation to the Blue and Gold Staff and also the undergraduates of Findlay Senior High School for supporting and making possible the Annual of 1935.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

Throughout the year the newspaper has been warmly received by the student body. Published each two weeks by the journalism class it has been one of the diversions which prevent school life from becoming drab and disinteresting. Based on choice bits of classroom news and accounts of school activities, and tempered with student written editorials it has had a highly beneficial effect on the morale of the student body. The staff deserves a great deal of credit for the quality and worth of this publication. Although somewhat hampered by the loss of the editor, Helen McKelvey, the staff has been able to continue the publication on schedule. To Mr. Hutson, the sponsor of this activity, also goes a great deal of praise for the many additional hours which he has spent in promoting this worthwhile activity.

FORUM CLUB

1st row—B. Brown, M. Roller, M. Wynn, J. Burk, J. Chatelain, C. Thiele.
2nd row—P. Roller, F. Flowers, H. Bishop, D. Patterson, D. Orwick.
3rd row—F. Dennison, W. Tabb, A. Shively, Mr. Humphrey.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

1st row—E. McCormic, M. Ritchey, I. Zeigler, F. Windle, B. Nathan, L. Ault, I. Archibald, D. Pifer.
2nd row—L. Magoon, F. Jackson, M. Reimund, N. Ketzenberger, E. Moore, H. Baughman, E. Miles.
3rd row—T. Ricketts, M. Slade, M. Sausser, C. Kirk, R. Varner, Miss Dietsch.

FORUM CLUB

The Forum Club meets twice a month for the purpose of a general review of current events. The events reviewed are not confined entirely to the field of politics and government, but include drama and literature as well. Events in our own country do not alone afford the topics for discussion as the entire first semester was spent in a review of European news.

The officers who have conducted the club for the past year are Harold Bishop, president; Fred Flowers, secretary; and Betty Brown, program chairman. And then there is the sponsor, Mr. Humphrey, who was frequently called upon to fill in when the program lagged.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The Psychology Club during this, its first year discussed personality and emotions. Louise Ault, chairman of the program committee was influential in getting each member to take part in at least one program during the year. At our first meeting, Richard Wallen defined psychology and showed us the methods used in studying it. Next Dr. Finton gave an interesting talk on fears. Dr. Wiggam, a noted authority, provided valuable discussion material. The sponsor was Mildred Dietsch. The officers were as follows: President, Delores Pifer; vice-president, Bob Varner; secretary, Esther Moore; critic, Louise Magoon, and chairman of the program committee, Louise Ault.

LATIN CLUB

1st row—R. Friend, O. Saul, F. Kussell, E. Ritz, M. King.

2nd row—E. Jacobs, B. Haws, M. Gompf, C. Burke.

Back row—M. Frye, K. Frye, S. Marshall, Miss Wiest.

BOOK LOVERS' CLUB

1st row—B. Terwilliger, R. Rooney, M. Schwyn, J. Smith, V. Feters.

2nd row—M. Peters, M. Williams, M. Cramer, B. Cromer, R. Winters, P. Folk.

Back row—R. Dietsch, B. Johnston, Miss Wisely, J. Dishon.

LATIN CLUB

Under the sponsorship of Miss Laura Weist, the Latin Club has become very popular. Verbs and grammar step aside and Caesar and Virgil cease to be requirements and become a pleasure. The purpose of the club is to show the relationship between the Latin language and our own by means of novels, drama, music, poetry, games, and contests. A study is made of the old Latin people, their customs and habits. A careful study is made of the language and the bearing it has on ours. The business of the club was capably handled by Margaret King, president; Betty Ritz, vice-president; Sam Marshall, secretary; and Oma Saul, treasurer.

BOOK LOVERS' CLUB

The Book Lovers' Club has completed its second successful year. The purposes were to foster a greater interest in the reading of all good books, to keep in touch with current literature, and to review and discuss books of interest to all members. During the year appropriate kinds of literature were brought before the group. At one meeting favorite authors were discussed, at another, favorite poetry, and at others, a variety of books were reviewed. A social meeting closed the year. Helen McKelvey was president; Betty Cromer, vice president, Martha Cramer, secretary and Ralph Dietsch, treasurer. Helen Wisely was the sponsor.

DEBATE CLUB

1st row—D. Patterson, L. Ault, J. Wallen, D. Flowers, K. Sayer.
Back row—K. Concannon, F. Flowers, R. Yates, Mr. Mattoon, E. Bixler, B. Hover, M. Solt.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

1st row—P. Wineland, W. Konkell, R. Kirk, M. Harms, M. Hanna, S. Moore,
2nd row—E. Lee, V. Lozier, J. Palmer, L. Magoon, L. Hagerty, V. Honicker.
3rd row—A. Kresser, C. Bond, L. Dantico, P. Roller, M. Brunk, E. Wisner, Miss Smith.
4th row—B. Wittenmyer, B. Rowe, M. Downing, A. Stout, A. Wilson, V. Smith, O. Semler.

DEBATE CLUB

Mr. Mattoon has turned out an exceptionally successful debate team this year. The negative team, composed chiefly of Louise Ault, Dan Flowers, Don Patterson have to their credit two victories out of three. The affirmative team was equally successful. The team, made up of John Wallen, Paul Taylor and Kermit Sayer captured four out of six decisions and to add to their glory rose, in the annual Phi Kappa Delta debate at Fremont, to the semi-finals and finally surrendered to Fremont in only a two to three decision. A debate between the two school teams was quite a fete and there was a lunch afterward.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The Library Assistants organization under the direction of Miss Bernice Smith was enlarged and improved this year. The classes held for half a year taught the fundamentals of library work. Austin Wilson was the president. After the Book Campaign, they were responsible for placing the old books on the shelves and preparing the new books for circulation. The girls made the curtains for the library windows while the boys cleaned the windows and hung the curtains. The social events were the picnics in spring and fall, and the pot-luck suppers in the library before an evening of work on library projects.

Back row—M. Gallagher, C. Fellers, T. Roberts, W. Niswander, B. Rogge, M. Bixler, C. Fettes.

ADVANCED SCIENCE CLUB

There appears to be no end to this scientific work so the organization of the Advanced Science Club endeavored to increase the knowledge of all those interested in studying advanced problems in physics, laboratory and theory work. The study of modern aviation and motion pictures had a prominent part in the club's program. The club had the pleasure upon various occasions of having speakers upon studied subjects. Throughout the year different members of the club demonstrated and explained various chosen topics. The custom was interrupted by three girls joining the organization, who proved to be as interested as the boys. Officers are: President, Jules Wittebort; vice-president, Myron Wells; secretary, Betty Jane Mischke; sponsor, Mr. G. R. Constien.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The purpose of the Chemistry Club, is to increase the skillfulness of the student so that he will be able to solve problems of his own and to develop scientific attitudes and a desire for scientific investigations. The club has been especially interested in the practical applications of chemistry. In order to obtain more information along this line they have had a number of the chemists of local industries in to speak to them.

The officers of this club are as follows: Vaughn Meeks, president; Robert Wetherald, secretary, and Wayne Niswander, chairman of the program committee. Mr. Lawrence is sponsor of this club.

AERO-SCIENCE CLUB

2nd row—P. Rush, M. Routzen, M. McCleary, Dorothy Culp, Mr. Lee.

AERO-SCIENCE CLUB

To the thirty members of this club interested in aircraft was extended the privilege to learn the principles of flight and the different types of aircraft used at present. The club has studied the aircraft construction and the part each unit plays in flight. If the club discussed engines, a real aeroplane engine was there for demonstration. When they studied the wings, they had a pair of wings for display. A research of the noted aviators and the things for which they are noted found its way into some of the club's programs. Mr. Baughman sponsored the group.

The officers were: President, Robert Jeffery; vice-president, Robert Chatelain; secretary and treasurer, Richard Gallagher.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club sponsored by G. W. Lee has as its purpose to offer opportunities to work on individual and group projects in the field of general biology, and to learn to identify our native trees, flowers, and birds. Besides the talks given by the students they enjoyed a variety of outside speakers. Among them was demonstration of blood pressure by Dr. Hanna, a talk of Judging Poultry by Mr. Matteson, and the Effects of Cigarette Smoking by Mr. Lee. The first trip was to the home of A. D. Altman who lectured on Taxidermy. The officers were: President, Phyllis Rush; vice-president, and secretary, Doris Parker.

HANDICRAFT CLUB

HANDICRAFT CLUB

The purpose of the Handicraft Club was to stimulate a desire for creative needlework, and handwork in cloth, yarn, paper, grass, reed, and beads.

Sewing, weaving, etc. "More fun," say the Handicraft Club. Singer-craft work explained. The members hands all stained by tie-dyeing. Learned porch-mat weaving from grass. "Make Christmas Cards by Block Printing," said Miss Sidwell in a club talk. Knitting, of course, the club is in style. The club helped with the Opera by making paper scenery flowers. Learning fancy stitching, everything from "cross" to "fagot" stitches. Finally, favors of all kinds from ordinary paper.

The officers were: President, Wilma Konkel; secretary, Elnora Bellette; sponsor, Miss Estella Anstaett.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The purpose and ideals of the Senior Commercial Club have always been high. The idea of business methods and business etiquette was predominant in planning the programs. At sometime during the year each member gave a talk before the group. At the last meeting they visited the Ohio Oil Building to get ideas about office work. At Christmas time they had a party at Esther Bishop's home. The chief social event was a banquet held early in June. The officers were: President, Bob Woodward; vice-president, Jeanette Brooks; secretary, Maxine Harmes, and reporter, Janet Folk. Sponsors were Rosa Hudnell and Mae Fassett.

2nd row—Miss West, V. Bowman, G. McCleary, R. Adler, P. Taylor.

Back row—Mr. Kinley, J. Gee, O. Dickes.

JUNIOR PLAY

1st row—D. Alexander, C. Crosser, V. Huber, B. J. Baughman, J. Eoff.

SENIOR PLAY

It has been a long time since the Senior class has presented a melodrama, but "Double Door" more than pleased. The fine character study of the lead, Victoria Van Bret, is one of the best exhibitions in the history of our dramatic work. The tension of the play, at the domination of the harridan collapses, makes it one of our outstanding class plays.

The cast consisted of Jeannette Brooks, Louise Ault, John Gee, Deloris Briggs, Revere Adler, Bette Child, Margaret Wittkofski, Orval Dickes, Glenn McCleary, Victor Bowman, Paul Taylor. The play was directed by Miss West.

The administrative staff consisted of Dorothy Buffington, Annabelle Robinson, Margaret Hanna, property committee; Wilma Konkel, Ruth Dressel, Viola Heistand, Martha Wright, Evelyn Miles, costumes; Raymond Flanagan, Don Redman, stage managers; Bill Waite, business manager.

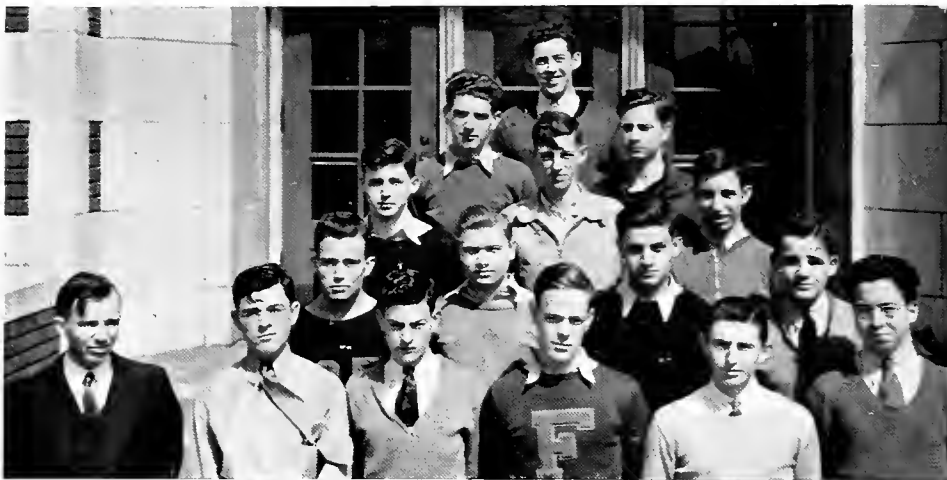

JUNIOR PLAY

"Through the Keyhole," a modern comedy by Davidson, was presented enthusiastically to our enthusiastic audience. The plot was the inquisitiveness of a match-making old grandmother, as she concerns herself with the ups-and-downs of her grand-children - - their romances, sophistication, and their near ruin at the hands of clever impostors.

The cast was composed of Betty Baughman, Carol Crosser, Don Alexander, Tom Roberts, Jane Eoff, Virginia Huber, Don Houser. The play was ably directed by Mr. Humphrey.

The administrative staff was composed of the following: Dana Orwick, business manager; Laverle Miller, Junior Schofield, stage managers; Miss Dietsch, Miss Hudnell, Margaret Wynn, Ethel Bates, Janice Krause, property committee; Mr. Constien and Stage-craft Club, scenery and lighting; Miss Switzer and Stage-craft Club, make-up; Mr. Shisler and the High School Orchestra, music; Ned Arnold, publicity.

In Memoriam

The Junior Class of 1935 lost one of its staunch and loyal members, Richard Gerald Johnston. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Bethlehem Road. He was born in Marion township, February 8, 1918. He died from injuries received when he lost control of a motorcycle, which skidded on loose gravel.

Richard was a fine fellow and had a smile for everyone. He was clean-cut and was fond of outdoor life and sports. He was a true friend to those who were close to him and was always ready to sacrifice and serve a friend. He was a true pal of his father, which is an attribute for any boy to have.

Our departed schoolmate radiated a forecast of clear, unselfish character with a smile beaming through the sting of adversity. He drew from those of his associates, that, which represents their better selves and overlooked their shortcomings by an expression of encouragement.

The memory of such a friend must linger long with those who knew him best. The impression of his early acquirements of a deeper sense of thoughts could not but impress us of the certainty of future attainments.

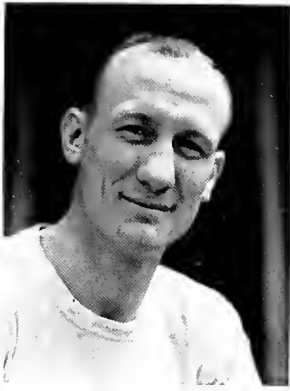

*Now like a lonely swallow
He sails the chart unknown,
But his brave soul, undaunted,
Shall wing on to its home.*

*Thus as friends, we miss him
As in memory, we recall
His smiles, his honest living,
An example for us all.*

COACHES

We certainly must congratulate Coach Winters for the splendid record made on the gridiron by his boys. However, it is not from the results alone, but also from the procedure, that we undertake his evaluation. It was natural that he should teach the individuals to come off the field fighting, but we proudly point out the fact that this fighting was clean and therefore sometimes disadvantageous. Mr. Winters has also been a conspicuous figure in everyday school life by aiding in outside activities, and, above all, by helping individuals with their disheartening problems. We are, indeed, fortunate in having for a guide a man so full of personality and fellowship.

Although he is a newcomer to our faculty, Mr. Bachman immediately made his capabilities evident by assuming the coaching duties of the track and basketball squads and assisted Mr. Winters in the coaching of the football squad. We appreciate his willingness especially when we consider the fact that their responsibilities were carried out in his spare time from his regular teaching position. Although he was seriously handicapped by the fact that only two letter men reported for practice, he turned seeming defeat into victory. From the sideline we have seen the fine results of his coaching; however, only those who have been under his personal guidance can tell of his true worth.

Mr. Frack, by coaching "B" squads in both football and basketball, has been responsible for starting our Trojan warriors on the road to victory. His presentation of fundamentals is as unique that practice becomes a profitable game. The constructive foundation work which Mr. Frack gives the beginning squads is invaluable to our athletic organization.

Carl Bachman

The Athletic Managers

There are very few people who stop and consider the time that managers spend in doing their work. They must be at the school or stadium ahead of the players. They must take care of the equipment and see that none of it is lost. They must keep the locker room clean.

In case of wet weather all the cleats on the shoes must be changed and it is up to the managers to do it. The managers must be ready with the rub to massage sore muscles. They must know how to tape ankles and wrists. They must see that the players have capes when not on the field. They must see that all equipment is kept in good condition. They are the last ones to leave after a game or after practice.

The managers must keep eligible just the same as the players. They are expected to get their lessons no matter how much time they spend working as a manager.

The managers are not given the recognition they deserve. They are seldom mentioned in connection with the players or its team. We do not realize the important part which the managers play in making the team a success.

It takes a manager three years to earn his letter, while it is possible for a member of the team to earn his letter each year that he plays.

Thanks to the managers for their marvelous work in helping to make the team a success.

FOOTBALL

For years football has been the leading athletic activity at Findlay High School. This year it was put in still a higher light by the formation of the Buckeye League. The purpose of the Buckeye League was to foster athletic competition among Sandusky, Fremont, Tiffin Columbia, Fostoria, and Findlay teams.

Coach Winters had several letter men to compose the nucleus of his 1934 team, and at the primary turnout many more ambitious fellows reported for practice, giving our mentor a hopeful but unexperienced squad.

We consider the season of 1934 a big success, even though we did not come out of every game with the long end of the score. In the long run, it is not the score that indicates the real victory but the lesson learned during these contests. The fact that you profit by the mistakes made and create a spirit to do better, is far more important than any score, no matter how large it may be.

This year's team might also be called a "hit and miss" team; that is, in some games speed, accuracy, and teamwork were exceptionally well displayed, while in other games they could not show that enthusiasm and determination needed for success. The misses of this year's team, however, were largely due to injury of varsity players. It is well known that no organization can reach great heights when its leaders are disabled.

All in all, however, it can be said that this year's squad is well worth your highest praises.

The results of the season's games are as follows:

Findlay, 26; Toledo Whitmer, 0. Findlay, 27; Bryan, 0. Findlay, 13; Columbus South, 0.

Findlay, 0; Tiffin Columbia, 0. Findlay, 18; Marion, 6. Findlay, 0; Sandusky, 45.

Findlay, 0; Fremont, 0. Findlay, 26; Lima Central, 7. Findlay, 0; Fostoria, 14.

VARSITY BASKET-BALL

1st row—H. Bishop, F. Elsea, C. Polen, B. Martin, H. Polen, G. Struble, D. Dorsey.

2nd row—Coach Bachman, J. Huffman, R. Brown, J. Wickham, R. Rogge, R. Baldwin, B. Walters.

BASKETBALL

Basketball interests were greatly stimulated by the formation of the "Buckeye League." The Trojans took second place in the league, being slightly nosed out of first place by the Sandusky aggregation.

To be able to surpass the fine record built up by this year's team will take some tall playing next year. Mr. Bachman, the head coach to whom a great amount of the success of the team is due, was well pleased with the splendid work which the squad performed in all its engagements. Every member of the squad possessed a steady and increasing ability. All the players were evenly matched, which is always an asset to a team.

The squad was composed equally of seniors, juniors, and sophomores. They all understood thoroughly the intimate points of the game, and each player followed faithfully the advice and improved details of playing that the coach suggested. This year's team was high in spirit and rapid in the execution of trick plays. They always played fair and square.

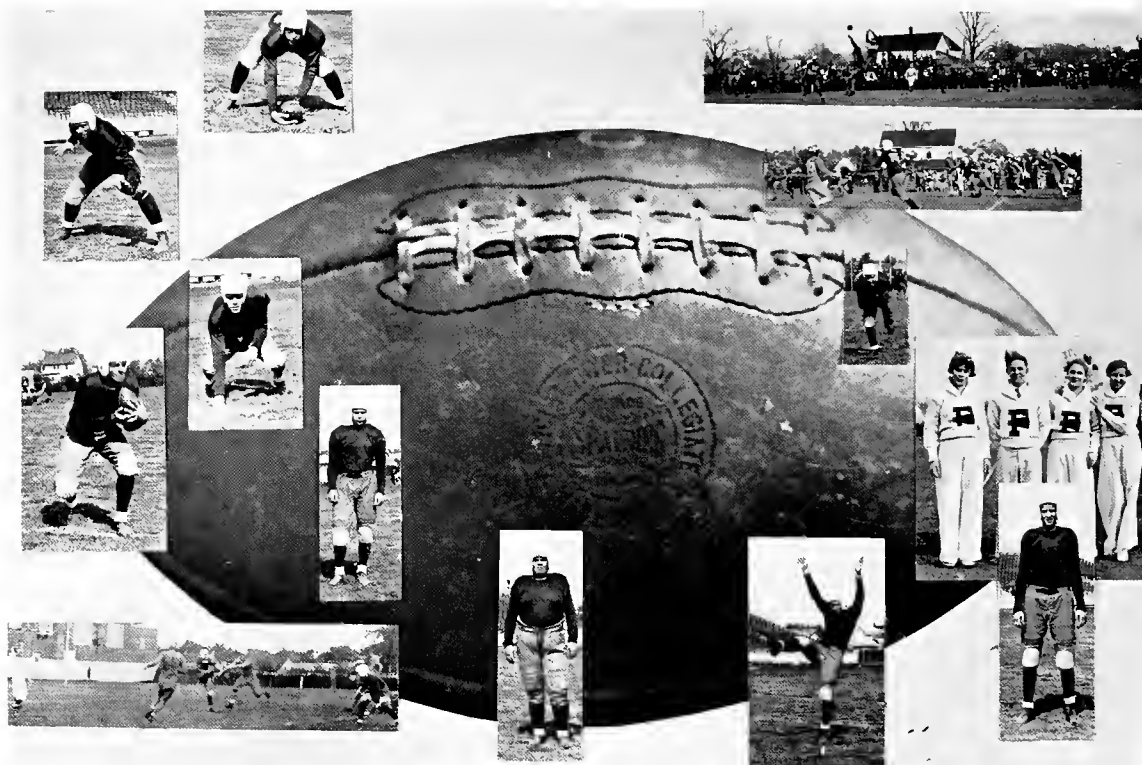

As a result of their tireless efforts this year's team won 9 of their 14 games. The games lost were close, well played, and not deserving of criticism.

The results of the season's games are as follows:

Findlay, 48; Pemberville, 18. Findlay, 28, Tiffin C., 17. Findlay, 18; Lima C., 22. Findlay, 13, Fremont, 9; Findlay, 17; Sandusky, 21. Findlay, 27; Fostoria, 8. Findlay, 24; Bowling Green, 25.

Findlay, 17; Tiffin C., 14. Findlay, 32; Lima S., 35. Findlay, 33; Fremont, 29. Findlay, 31; Sandusky, 35. Findlay, 41; Kenton, 27. Findlay, 26; Fostoria, 16. Findlay, 40; Napoleon, 11.

"KILLER" SHIVELY—Arthur was the human powerhouse on the line whether it was defense or offense.

"BENNY" WALTERS—Our field general who seldom monopolized the ball carrying department.

ROYCE BUSICK—Royce was the snapper-back on offense and good in backing up the line on defense.

DON HELMS—Don was the interference for the runners and protected the punters and passers.

WENDEL WINELAND — A lineman who never shirked and always tackled his job in a cheerful manner.

BOB JEFFERY—Bob is the new steam roller we procured for our line. He will be back next year.

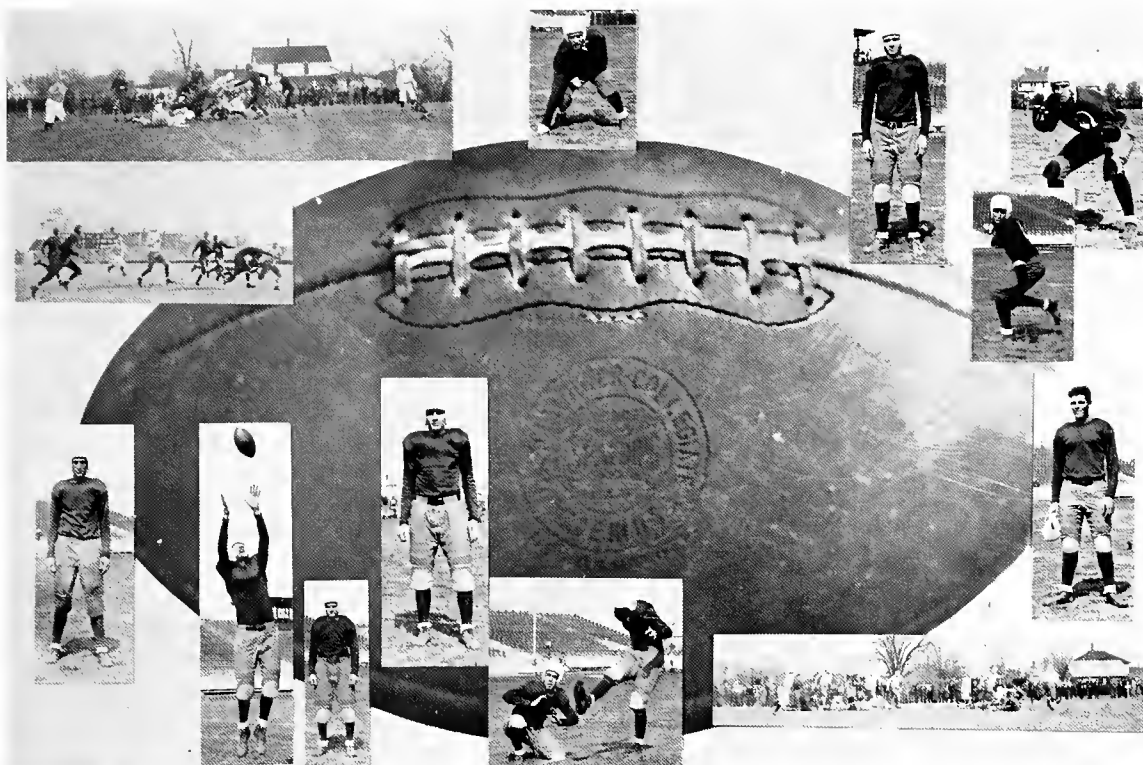

RAYMOND PAUL—Raymond never let his handicaps overcome him. Many a time he kicked us out of a tight spot.

BILL RILEY—A two year letter man, captain for next year, and a fullback whose tackles we can hear.

BOB ROGGE—A flanker who stopped many a gain around his end that might have meant defeat.

CHEERLEADERS—They are the real heart of the revived spirit of the team and school this year.

DICK BALDWIN—"Baldy" could always be depended upon for some much needed yardage.

"HECKY" POLEN—"Hecky" was a consistent catcher of those long passes that were thrown to him by his team mates.

DIKE DORSEY—Dike always kept us up on the edge of our seats with his remarkably fast running.

GEORGE PORTER — George always managed to do more than his share toward winning the game and he certainly could "take it."

GEORGE DYSINGER—Dyke did his share in holding up his portion of the line.

BENNY & TOM—This team of extra point makers kept Findlay in the lead when every point was precious.

BOB HOSLER—Bob could be depended upon in an emergency and his heady guidance of the team pulled us out of many a tight place.

FRANK EMERSON—Frank brought down many a man who was intent upon breaking through our line.

RALPH SPOON—Good natured "Spoonie" always played an excellent game and was a good sport.

JOHN WICKHAM — "Man Mountain" Wickham always got his man no matter how large he was.

ROBERT BROWNE

FRED ELSEA

CHAD POLEN

JOHN WICKHAM

BRADFORD MARTIN

ROBERT BROWNE

Bob made a good showing during his first year. His ability to shoot and to pass was an acquired habit, making his scoring very good. Bob played the forward position and was always a hard man to guard.

FRED ELSEA—(forward)

Fred has been playing basket-ball for the past three years, but it was not until this year that he has gained much recognition in this field. He filled his position with great skill. When the going was tough, Fred would squirm around the opposing players and come through with a two pointer. He headed his team in scoring in the Sandusky, Fostoria, and Lima South games.

CHAD POLEN (forward)

Chad proved to be a good mate with Elsea at the other forward position. During the whole season Chad seemed to be Findlay's ace scorer. His ability to make those points was never ending. Good handling of the ball and speedy floor work top Chad as being the star player of this year's basketball season.

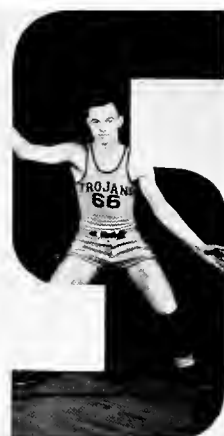

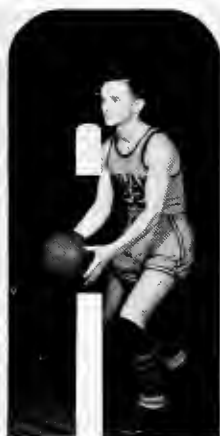

JOHN WICKHAM

"Big John" or (man mountain) was always ready to boost the score and led the scoring in many games. The centers of the teams were never too good for John and he showed this by scoring and keeping them from scoring. His services are looked forward to.

BRADFORD MARTIN (center)

When Findlay needed the tip-off Martin was always ready to get it. Brad played a fine brand of basketball throughout the whole year. He came up from the reserves where he had played two years. Bradford lead his team in scoring in the Pemberville, Lima South, and Tiffin games.

HAROLD BISHOP

HERRICK POLEN

DWIGHT DORSEY

ROBERT ROGGE

GEORGE STRUBLE

HAROLD BISHOP (Guard)

Another fellow who came up from the low ranks and made good is "Pee Wee" Bishop. Bishop has shown strong talent in all games this year and we are, indeed, glad to know he will return for another year of varsity basketball. Bishop was the master of the team when in tight places. He kept the fellows cool and calm throughout each game. "Pee Wee" helped his team in scoring in the Pemberville, Kenton, Fremont, and Sandusky games.

HERRICK POLEN (center)

Hecky for the past two years has been one of Findlay's steady players. Although crippled with a bad knee at the beginning of the season, he came back with his accurate ball handling. Heck saw plenty of service the remainder of the year and was outstanding in the Kenton, Sandusky, and Lima Central games.

DWIGHT DORSEY

"Dike," our fastest and shiftiest player, was very hard to guard, his opponent becoming tired in no time. His passing was an outstanding factor and the size of his opponent never worried him. "Dike" gave us all a feeling of satisfaction.

ROBERT ROGGE

Rogge, being tall, used his height and his spirit to help his good work. The best that he had was always given and we know that he will give his best next year.

GEORGE STRUBLE (guard)

George has proved his worth this year to Findlay's team by showing his fine work and talent at one of the guard positions. George has stopped many opponents from scoring with his steady movement and fine floor work. He has played ball with the school for the past two years but only acquired his varsity ability this year.

1st row—E. Ritchey, R. Spoon, D. Werkheiser, E. Miller, H. Polen, J. Wickham, J. Martin, D. Gallagher, D. Fox.
2nd row—D. Bibler, F. Adams, L. Alge, N. Winch, P. Rush, J. Wallen, B. Powell, D. Hartman, H. Mitchell, W. Williams, Coach Bachman.
Back row—T. Miller, L. Rice, C. Marshall, M. Whistler, D. Jacobs, B. Clark, B. Brown, R. Baldwin, J. Morrison, J. Kelley, A. Laube, R. Overholt, R. Rice.

Track

This season our track squad was late in starting their practice. This was due to the fact that we did not know how much school remained. When we received word that we were going to have a full term, preparations for track began.

Mr. Bachman was selected as the track coach. He had the boys practice in the gymnasium until weather permitted them to be on the track. He required a track theme from each boy so as to familiarize him with the sport.

Tryouts were held and the track squad was chosen. Tryouts were carried out on a fair and competitive basis. The faster ones were chosen for the 1935 squad.

Each night they had an hour or more of hard practice. The coach set up a requirement that all members must have their muscles loosened before practicing. This did a great deal of good.

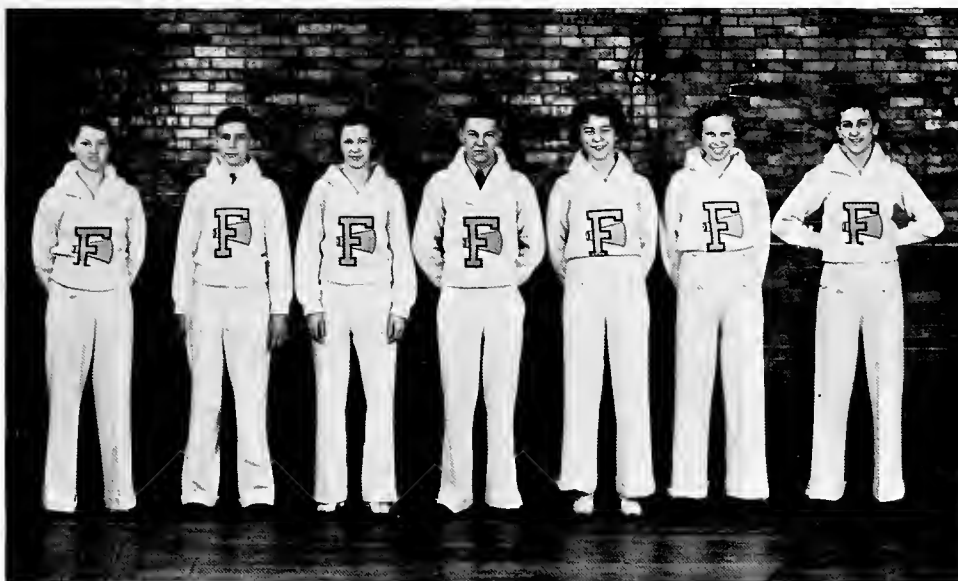

By this means and by keeping health rules for athletes, this squad was in fine shape for their first track meet. This meet was with Sycamore. This meet seemed to be a starter for our squad for they came out on top, the score being 88-41. Their handicap was not entering the event as we did.

Our trip to Lima Central proved victorious for us, for we defeated them 66-60. Lima Central and Findlay are more or less friendly rivals.

Our next track meet was at Tiffin. Again Findlay brought home the bacon with a score of 76-48.

With all these facts in mind I think we should give credit where credit is due for the fact that we have had a good track squad, despite handicaps.

M. Armbrecht, A. Kresser, M. King, E. Willett, F. Cavins, M. Wittkofski, F. J. Krause.

Cheer Leaders

"Come on now! Make it good and loud this time! One! Two! Three!" And so it is that another cheer rings loudly through the gymnasium or boldly reverberates through the spaciousness of the Donnell Stadium.

Those who lead these cheers deserve much attention and applause for the splendid work they have contributed toward making the appreciation of athletics more outstanding. The boys on the field for whom the volume of our lusty lungs was amazingly increased were rewarded with many hearty cheers. But the cheer leaders who stimulated this applause never received nor even asked for this attention. Let us now pay tribute to these selected few who showed sufficient ability to have been chosen by an equally capable judge, Miss Bushey.

Special notice should be given to the fact that not one game was played during both the football or basketball season without the presence of these hard workers. It isn't a light task to get up and face an enormous blur of faces, some hiding innumerable thoughts. It isn't an easy task to abruptly penetrate these individual minds with a plea to help the fellows out of their difficulty with a cheer. It isn't an easy task to lead that mass of voices into one burst of enthusiastic acclaim.

Then, too, we dare not forget those costumes which bedecked the shapely forms of our leaders, both boys and girls. Our heads were held high when we saw the head of the "Trojan" on the backs of the lads and lasses who did their great big show in bringing victory to our fair school.

Boys' Intra-Mural Sports

The winners in boys intramural sports are as follows:

Home Room 213 under Ervin Tesnow, won the basketball cup. In bowling, Don Courtney's team which won every frame, walked away with the honors. This year's golf team is composed of Robert Woodward, Chad Polen, Royce Busick, Glen Swisher, Lester Moss, and James Andrews. The boy's tennis team is made up of: Robert Drake, Robert Carlin, Max Mellott, Tom Buchanan, Joe Shoupe, George Clapper, Charles Decker, Wunder Tabb, John and Richard Schwynn, and Homer Newman. Mr. Hochstettler has made arrangements for eight or ten matches for the team. Although the intramural program has not been so elaborate this year as formerly, it lacked none of the interest of former years.

Girls' Intra-Mural Sports

What a pleasure after the day's work is finished to lay aside one's books and resort to the gymnasium for an hour of play! Thus the girls have the privilege to enter the seasonal sports, such as kick-dodge ball, soccer baseball, basketball, volley-ball, deck tennis and baseball. These activities afford such great opportunities to make new friends and enjoy good, clean fun with them.

The tournaments are either a home room project or the prune league fashion. In a Prune League tournament individual selected teams enter, and there is a possibility of then having it Round-Robin style, that is, every team plays every other. The girls have shown a great interest in sports this year and many have participated. The banner is always awarded to the winning team.

"You should take this mulberry colored dress, madam; it would suit you excellently as you are so pale."

Jane Bishop: "But I am not usually pale—I am only shocked at the price."

"Mamma, I want some water to christen my doll," said Ethel.

"No, dear," said her mother, reprovingly, "it's wrong to make game of such things."

"Then I want some wax to waxinate her. She's old enough to have something done."

Policeman: "As soon as I saw you come around the bend I said to myself, 'Forty-five at least.' "

Betty C.: "How dare you? It's this hat that makes me look so old."

Mike: "So you're a salesman, are you? What do you sell?"

Ike: "Salt."

Mike: "I'm a salt seller, too."

Ike: "Shake."

Miss Fasset (engaging fourth typist within a month): "Can you punctuate?"

G. McClure (brightly): "Oh, yes! I'm always early in the morning."

Miss West: "The sentence, 'My father had money,' is in the past tense. Now, Mary, what tense would you be speaking in if you said, 'My father has money?'"

M. Hollington: "Pretense."

M. Julien: "I envy that fat man when he laughs."

J. Riley: "Why?"

M. Julien: "There seems to be so much of him having a good time."

It doesn't mean much to call him a "middle-of-the-road man"; he might be either a statesman or a truck driver.

Restaurant orchestras in Boston are so versatile they play anything a diner may request. Recently a patron was asked what he would like the orchestra to play.

"If it is agreeable to everyone else," said the diner, "I wish they would play checkers 'till I finish my dinner."
